3	No 941 dated 12th December 1915 from the Jahgirdar of Jelandur States that the annuity cannot be paid in monthly quarterly or half yearly instalments and for reasons stated in the letter can be disbursed only annually. ?) Subs. 12/2/16 a) There seem to be good grounds for not according to the request of the petitioner. If all the annuitants were to demand payments every month, the Jaghirdars position will not be an enviable one. He can not be in the position of a banker for them. The revenue is collected annually from the Jaghir, and it will be convenient for him to pay the annuities once a year immediately after the Collection Season. b) There do not appear to be any special grounds in the petitioner's case for exercising the extraordinary powers vested in Govt under Rule 3. c) If approved, the petitioner will be informed that Govt do not see any special reason for directing payment of gaunuity in instalments. The Government of His Highness, the Maharaja of Mysore, at Bangalore.

The humble Appeal petition of S. Ramarao, 4th Branch of Dewan Purnaiya's family, Andalcoil, Karur Taluk, Trichinopoly District.

Under rule 3, Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, dated Bangalore 17th December 1913 No. J. 1811-17 / ~~Legis II-12~~.

The petitioner begs to state as follows:--

The petitioner submitted a petition to the Jaghirdar of Yelandur on 4th December 1914 to the effect that his annuity may be paid in two half-yearly instalments, but the said Jaghirdar was pleased to reject the petition on 22-12-1914 regretting his inability to pay the annuity by instalments.

2. The amount of the annuity is now paid to the petitioner in a lump sum once in a year, so that he finds it very inconvenient to manage his affairs owing to the general rise in prices of the articles of necessity.

3. The petitioner therefore respectfully prays that an order may be passed on the Jaghirdar of Yelandur, so that the annuity due to me may be paid to me in instalments, monthly or half-yearly as the case may be.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. J 1905 Legis 20-15-2 dated 16-11-1915 forwarding therewith a copy of appeal petition received from Mr. S. Rama Rao of Andancoil, Trichinopoly District and calling for my opinion in the matter of his request for payment of his annuity by monthly or half yearly instalments I have the honour to state that his prayer is inadmissible for the following reasons:-

(i) Annuity being a "periodical payment of money amounting to a fixed sum in each year" it is not in the nature of the thing that it should be split up into 2 or 12 part-payments maturing at shorter periods than a year.

(ii) From its very beginning, the history of the Jaghir annuity unmistakably points to the annuity having ever been treated and acted upon as an annual, and not a monthly, or half yearly, payment.

(iii) That even at the passing of the Yelandur Jaghir Regulation the annuity was understood as an annual payment follows from the following extract from Sir (then Mr.) P.N. Krishnamurthi's letter No. 30 dated 29-2-1884 addressed to the Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore:-

"The status of the annuitants is now recognised and the annual payments fully ensured, the allowances fixed providing good means for their maintenance in perpetuity."

(iv) The monthly or half yearly payments of annuity are not only unprecedented but also opposed to the spirit of the Regulation.

(v) Annuities being "payable out of the Revenue of the Jaghir of Yelandur" as laid down in clause 1, section 3 of the Jaghir Regulation, it is difficult to conceive how they could be made available for payment either monthly or half yearly before the close of the revenue collection in the Jaghir.

Above all there is nothing to warrant the compliance with such a request, especially as such compliance would create a very inexpedient precedent.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Varamia Mudaliar

Jaghirdar of Yelandur.
